Jesus sends us out into the world as witnesses to love and truth.

I Reading: Acts 1:15-17, 20-26

II Reading: I John 4:11-16

GOSPEL: John 17:11-19

And now I will no longer be in the world, but they are in the world, while I am coming to You. Holy Father, keep them in Your name that You have given Me, so that they may be one just as we are. When I was with them I protected them in Your name that You gave Me, and I guarded them, and none of them was lost except the son of destruction, in order that the scripture might be fulfilled. But now I am coming to You. I speak this in the world so that they may share my joy completely. I gave them Your word, and the world hated them, because they do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. I do not ask that You take them out of the world but that You keep them from the evil one. They do not belong to the world any more than I belong to the world. Consecrate them in the truth. Your word is truth. As You sent Me into the world, so I sent them into the world. And I consecrate myself for them, so that they also may be consecrated in truth.

HAPPY MOTHER'S DAY!

LORD, BLESS OUR MOTHERS!

"Life's prime needs are water, bread and clothing, and also a house for decent privacy. Better is the life of the poor under the shadow of their own roof than banquets among strangers." (Sirach 29:21-22)
